

Celebrating Progress & Looking Ahead

Zoom Parent Peer Support
Meeting

Recognising growth, building confidence, and planning next steps for children with speech delay and SEND

Session Aims

Reflect on your child's progress

Recognise meaningful achievements

Understand next steps in support

Feel encouraged moving forward

Why Celebrating Progress Matters

Builds confidence

Strengthens connection

Reinforces positive behaviour

Encourages motivation

What Progress Can Look Like

More eye contact

Using gestures or signs

Attempting new sounds

Improved transitions

Better emotional regulation

Celebrating Small Wins

Praise effort

Be specific

Share achievements

Create a proud moments journal

Tracking Development

- • Keep notes of new skills
- • Record short videos
- • Review professional targets
- • Notice social growth

Looking Ahead

Review support plans

Set new communication goals

Plan for transitions

Continue advocacy

Building Confidence Long-Term

Focus on strengths

Encourage independence

Reduce pressure

Celebrate individuality

Parent Reflection

What are you proud of?

What are your next goals?

What support do you need?

Closing Message

Small steps matter.

Progress is progress.

Every child deserves celebration.